COMPANION CECIL JAY PEASE

Greetings

Sir Knights:

I wish to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks for your vote of confidence in placing me in the East of your commandery. I would deem it a privilege to greet each and every Sir Knight in person. I know that the transportation problem is a difficult one. Nevertheless, I hope you will come as often as you possibly can and enjoy an evening of Templar Good Fellowship.

By rearranging our Armory, we are giving up the space formerly used as Past Commander's Parlor and Council Officer's Dressing Room, which will save our Commandery one thousand dollars ($1000) annually in rent. This will, in a small way, effect a change in a few of the lockers of our Sir Knights, who will be notified at the proper time.
